

WHY WOULD YOU BECOME A MEMBER?

When asked what the top 3 things that the AASCF does for your agency/organization, the response was:

- The AASCF has the ability to track trends and issues facing Alberta families;
- The AASCF acts as a strong advocate and liaison to those who can make real changes
- The AASCF speaks as a voice for agencies at levels that are unattainable by individuals or agencies

Other reasons include:

- Ability to respond to new and updated information in a timely manner
- Networking with sector peers
- Equal voice for all members, regardless of size of agency
- Opportunities to develop leadership abilities
- Recognition of professional contributions
- Extensive website including job site
- Retail discount program

WHO WE ARE?

- The Alberta Association of Services for Children and Families (AASCF) is a membership association of agencies providing services to children and families in Alberta. The AASCF formed in 1967 as a network of agencies with common interests
- Currently the AASCF has Regional Chapters throughout Alberta and are in the process of creating additional chapters to meet the changing needs of our members.
- We administer a leadership bursary program that is available to members
- We also have a website where we offer job postings; workshop and seminar information; and much more. www.aascf.com

WHAT WE DO?

The Alberta Association of Services for Children and Families works to strengthen member agencies and promotes attitudes, practices and conditions that contribute to quality services for vulnerable children and families.

WE ACHIEVE OUR MISSION BY:

- Creating a network of agencies for information sharing, social policy development and advocating on behalf of service providers.
- Working to resolve social policy issues with collaboration between various stakeholders.
- Developing professional practices for service excellence. Representing the interests of member agencies on regional and provincial committees.
