

Fort McMurray – AB

WJS Canada is hiring 1 Full-Time, 1 Part-Time and 2 Casual Disability Service Workers in Fort McMurray, AB.

Job Summary

The Community Disability Worker, with the guidance of the Team Leader, is responsible for emotional, behavioral and physical care, support and supervision of individuals in our care, both in their homes and in the community. In addition, this position is responsible for implementation of training and programming, monitoring of individual program plans, accurate reporting and recording of the individual's daily progress and activities, general maintenance related to the care of their home and/or other activities and task as requested and required.

The successful applicant must possess:

- Minimum Grade 12 or equivalent
- Must have valid class 5 driver license with clear driving abstract and must have reliable transportation
- Crisis Prevention Intervention, First Aid/CPR Certification
- Clear criminal record check and social services involvement check
- Medication Administration, Abuse Protocol Training, Restrictive Procedures Training

Required Skills and Abilities:

- One year experience working with individuals with developmental disabilities
- Ability to meet the requirements of Service Agreement of individual(s) in service
- Knowledge of developmental disabilities
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Demonstrated skills in implementing individual program plans or behavior management plans
- Ability to work well in a team setting and also without direct supervision
- Ability to follow instructions, and function in a crisis
- Ability to teach living/vocational skill, Observation/assessment skills
- Ability to work with individuals requiring assistance with personal care, daily living skills, social and recreational activities.

Must indicate job # C348 on your cover letter/resume and forward it to

Attention: Etta Nicholson – Program Manager

Fax: 1-855-465-5502

Email: ab-hr@telus.net

For more information on qualifications, please visit our website at:

www.wjscanada.com