

Langley – BC

WJS Canada is hiring 1 CLS Keyworker in Langley, BC.

Job Summary

As key worker for assigned individuals, the residential child and youth worker is responsible for overall development and care of those individuals. As well as providing general, non-specific client services, the position includes physical, emotional and behavioural support, assistance with programming in the client's own home and implementing and monitoring individual program plans through observation and accurate reporting. The residential child and youth worker also implements training and programming in the program and the community and participates in the operation and maintenance of the program. This position requires union membership with CUPE.

The successful applicant must possess:

1. Valid CPR/First Aid
2. Valid BC Class 4 Drivers license
3. Non-Violent Physical Crisis Intervention Certificate
4. Behavior Management Certificate
5. Minimum of one year direct care experience
6. Conflict Resolution Certificate
7. Certificate or Diploma in Human Services Field or related experience
8. At least two years experience working with individuals with a developmental disability in a community based setting

Required Skills and Abilities:

- Ability to work within a multi-disciplinary team environment
- Ability to liaise with family members, social workers and other stakeholders
- Ability to perform all direct care and personal care
- Experience working with challenging behavior
- Ability to manage crisis situations effectively and work independently
- Ability to participate in and/or lead goal planning, PSP, Plan of Care
- Demonstrated skills in working effectively with individuals who have autism
- Demonstrated skills in designing and implementing individual program plans
- Good organizational and administrative skills
- Good computer experience in writing reports in Word
- Excellent writing skills

Must indicate job # C234 on your cover letter/resume and forward it to

Attention: Jackie Van Den Bosch, Program Manager

Fax: 1-855-465-5502

Email: bc-hr@telus.net

For more information on qualifications, please visit our website at:

www.wjscanada.com